STUDY VISIT "DEVELOPING INFRASTRUCTURE TO WORK WITH YOUTH"

in Daugirdiškės, Lithuania

from 11/05/2025 to 16/05/2025

About the project

The study visit aimed to enhance youth workers' understanding of infrastructure for youth work in Lithuania. Participants explored youth centers, mobile youth work, and public spaces in municipalities like Elektrėnai, Kaišiadorys and Vilnius. Through shared experiences, they learned from local strategies, exchanged practices, and built networks. The program fostered cooperation, supported Erasmus+ goals, and promoted innovation in youth work across Europe.

This certificate has been issued by Elektrėnų kultūros centras.

Study visit "Developing infrastructure to work with youth"

Study visit | 11/05/2025–16/05/2025 | in Daugirdiškės, Lithuania

Main activities: It was a 6-day study visit with main elements being presentations on youth work context and history, case studies, discussions, group work and visits to local youth work providers, like youth centers and open spaces. The learning journey of participants was enforced through group and individual reflections.

Main outcomes: Participants explored the concept and practices of youth work in Lithuania, they also discussed the realities of youth work and problems which youngsters and youth workers face nowadays. To deepen the knowledge, participants also visited institutions and organizations that are using different forms of youth work: open, mobile, street youth work, youth information and counseling, practical skill development, etc. Furthermore, participants reflected on how national-level priorities and how they could support youth work development at the local level in their countries. Lastly, participants together developed ideas for future international cooperation in the framework of Erasmus+ program.

Trainers: Nerijus Miginis, Marius Ulozas

Group: Participants from Italy, Latvia, Lithuania, North Macedonia, Norway, Poland, Portugal, Slovenia and Spain
